

Just A Reminder...

I wanted to remind you of the event we are having at The Pine City Scrapbooking Co Inc. on Saturday September 26, 2008. Come on in and do a free Christmas ornament make and take featuring a brand new product for us! Browse our fantastic clearance area brimming with paper, rubberstamps, embellishments and stickers. We have been busy at work getting out clearance product to stretch your dollars. You'll also be happy to find great new products that we have been adding in the store day by day.

Make sure to check out the 6 new classes we have to offer in the month of October! We have three new teachers and another back by popular demand! You will not be disappointed at the fabulous art that they have brought to teach us all.

Jessica Bavier is teaching a great card class October 4th

Tami Wood is teaching two card classes October 11th and 12th featuring Copic markers and A Muse stamps.

Wendy Jannusch is teaching two card classes October 11th and 12th. One class is featuring her own transparency creations. Her other card class is featuring Vintage Photos that she has created.

Don Waalen has put together a fabulous card keeper mini book and will be teaching that class on October 18th

Please visit our website at www.thepinecityscrapbookingco.com and/or our blog at www.scrapbookinginthepines.blogspot.com.